Effective from 1 January 2018, TCE is required by its postal contracts and UPU regulations to hand over Sorted Mail to additional destinations. Furthermore for Rest of World countries, TCE is requested to indicate and hand over items containing goods as a Packet (E) format.

Items containing goods which are shipped to countries (not including European Union, Switzerland, Norway and Iceland) should always be sorted, handed over and indicated on the bag label as Packet or Encombrand (E), regardless of actual format and / or weight.

Volume Limitation

The Postal Service and the tariffs are valid only for the shipment of the consolidated goods. The minimum number of shipments per consolidation is 50 shipments. Below this level, shipments will be transferred to the international courier network and billed accordingly.

Definition of goods

All contents for international mail which cannot be defined as a document. This includes any mail item with a gadget or merchandising sample. A CN22 document is applicable for goods sent outside the European Union.

For Mail containing goods sent within the European Union, a CN22 document is not necessary.

Goods must comply with all applicable Dangerous Goods (e.g. IATA, UPU) and Prohibited Goods and regulations including local legislation.

Definition of Documents

A document is an item with only written or printed information, and non-tradeable, so without any commercial value.

Terms and Condition

The service is provided in accordance with the TCE terms and conditions published on the company's website www.tceholding.ro. The service is provided by TCE partners and subcontractors.

The TCE is the one that decides which partner or transport solution it uses for each destination in order to obtain the level of service employed.

Invoicing

Service rates are expressed in EUR without VAT. The invoicing of the service is done monthly in RON with VAT.
