Effective from 1 January 2018, TCE is required by its postal contracts and UPU regulations to hand over Sorted Mail to additional destinations. Furthermore for Rest of World countries, TCE is requested to indicate and hand over items containing goods as a Packet (E) format.

Items containing goods which are shipped to countries (not including European Union, Switzerland, Norway and Iceland) should always be sorted, handed over and indicated on the bag label as Packet or Encombrant (E), regardless of actual format and / or weight.

Definition of goods

All contents for international mail which cannot be defined as a document. This includes any mail item with a gadget or goods sample.

A CN22 document is applicable for goods sent outside the European Union.

For Mail containing goods sent within the European Union, a CN22 document is not necessary.

Goods must comply with all applicable Dangerous Goods (e.g. IATA, UPU) and Prohibited Goods and regulations including local legislation.

Definition of Documents

A document is an item with only written or printed information, and non-tradeable, so without any commercial value.
